Tantric

uncovers my light
 wand, hmmm...desired more

 wavelength, but my friends are all co-
 dependent and working on advising everybody to go fuck itself, fluorescently

          equipped or no,
     while analysts invent
    credentials for this

     intriguing New Age of Me, encore.
